Tanner-Dent Detective Agency Does it Again

Whiz Tanner and Joey Dent Solve Crime

Jerry Mormann
Staff Reporter

Local youths, Whiz Tanner and Joey Dent, discover key to solving the Missing Borden Trophy case that has had Chief Reid and the Jasper Springs Police Department baffled for the past week. As reported Tuesday in this paper, the Jasper Springs Youth Soccer Club's Borden Trophy, was stolen sometime on Monday afternoon.

In broad daylight, the trophy, which is engraved with the name of each year's winning team, was taken from its locked display case in the lobby of Town Hall. Details of the case were provided to this reporter through an exclusive interview with the two sleuths who solved it. "It was a simple mistake on the part of the perpetrator that broke this case wide open", said Tanner when asked to explain how he and his partner were able to deduce the hiding place of the trophy. "You bet," chimed in Dent.

The Border Trophy was given to the town by Jasper Springs' most famous sports star, Jason Borden. Borden led the Jasper Springs High School soccer team to an unprecedented four-year undefeated record

Repaving to Begin on Jefferson Blvd

Series of improvement projects pass Council

Wanda Kelly
Staff Reporter

In a last ditch effort, Mayor Feldman convinced the Town Council to fund the repaving of Jefferson Blvd from Gorge Road to Five Points as well as three other much needed public works projects. The stoplight at Five Points will be upgraded to add automatic triggering, the brick wall around the water tower will be finished, and the Springs Park landscaping project will begin.

Tom Dent, Superintendent of Public Works, has been working overtime to provide the necessary background asked for by the Council. When asked about the projects that were not included, Dent responded that

Council Election Deadline Approaching: Two Seats Lack Candidates

Four potential candidates still do not have enough signatures to qualify for ballot

Prentice Zeck
Staff Reporter

The deadline for filing a petition to be included on the upcoming Council election is only one week away and two vacant seats do not yet have qualified candidates. Clerk of Courts, Dave Smith, says not to worry. "There are four individuals out there working very hard to gather the required number of signatures and they all are very close. I think three of them might file by tomorrow and the fourth should be ready by the weekend."
